Letter No R T 1277 dated 28-3-35 from the President, City Municipal Council Mysore, stating that the practice of issuing free badges ~~etc~~ for exemption from vehicle taxes to persons, other than those who are exempted under the existing bylaws, has been long followed and that audit objection has been raised that the practice requires Sanction of Govt and requesting sanction thereto

1 The existing exemptions from payment of vehicle tax are contained in Appendix C of the Mysore city Municipal Rules and By laws - The President states that, in the interest of Municipal work, officers and servants of other departments have also been exempted with the previous approval of the Municipal Council or of the Managing Committee, though not provided under the by laws - Under proviso (d) to Section 64 of the city Municipalities Regulation Sanction of Govt is necessary for the grant of exemptions It is also stated that such a procedure has been in vogue in the past The Comptroller has placed this under objection and reports that Sanction of Govt may be obtained in the matter The President however
